GLORIA PALAST

A PALACE FOR YOUR EVENT

GLORIA PALAST – A HISTORICAL CELEBRITY HOTSPOT

In 1956 the Gloria Palast was opened by one of the most important persons in German movie history, producer Ilse Kubaschewski, as Munich's most modern cinema. It soon advanced to be a favored movie premieres theatre.

Since then, the Gloria Palast kept its promises in offering extraordinary flair, and the ability to experience the exclusive ambience of a movie premiere.

The Gloria Palast, is located at Karlsplatz in the heart of Munich, stands for cinema enjoyment at the highest level including extra large leather seats with footrests and individual tables. The Gloria Palast is not simply a part of German cinema history but even more a unique location for an unforgettable experience.

A PREMIUM CINEMA; 100% ACCORDING TO YOUR TASTE.

The Gloria Palast offers you a supremely chic ambience, paired with technical perfection as well as a service second to none, which can be adjusted to your demands.

We are able to individualize your event according to your theme; starting with the branding of numerous display windows and other advertising spaces through to the red carpet, which not always has to be red. The Gloria Palast offers you the amenities of a professional conference venue in an event location with the highest level of exclusiveness and charm.

IN THE MOVIES, EVERYTHING IS POSSIBLE – WE ACT ACCORDINGLY.

In the Gloria Palast, up to 240 visitors may experience cinema at its best! Be the host of an employee training, a workshop, a press conferences or your own private event screening!
