Welcome to Düsseldorf!

Little Paris, city of culture, heartland of the Carnival – the state capital impresses with an exceptionally large and varied cultural life. While the countless beer pubs in the Old Town are more traditional, the hip Media Harbour with its fashionable restaurants, lounges and bars is the trendy quarter. It's very worthwhile to take a walk around this "Creative Mile" where the spectacular contrasts between post-modernist architecture and listed buildings create impressive novel perspectives. Hunting for the latest fashion trends quickly takes you to the "Kö", one of Germany's most attractive shopping streets.

Thanks to its central location, the City-Hostel in Düsseldorf is ideally suitable for any city explorers looking to spend some leisure time in this attractive mix of culture, politics, media and entertainment. The vibrant centres of Düsseldorf city life can be reached within a matter of minutes. In the hostel itself, guests will find modern and comfortable facilities.
